

Dear SAAFoST Member

SAAFoST has negotiated a special 20% discount for all members wishing to attend Label Summit Africa 2014, taking place 10-11 March at the Cape Town International Convention Centre. The event consists out of a two-day conference and table-top exhibition and is focussed on all aspects of label and package printing. This is the second edition of the event – the previous one in 2012 was attended by over 300 delegates. It is organised by the Labelexpo Global Series (www.labelexpo.com)

Delegate passes include the conference sessions, table-top exhibition, lunch on both days and a dinner on the first evening as well as a wine estate visit on the second afternoon, where you can spend time with colleagues in the industry and blend, bottle and label your own wine. The conference will include sessions on the latest label and package printing trends and technologies, case studies and sessions on branding and design.

For more information on Label Summit Africa 2014, including the full programme and pricing, please visit www.labelsummit.com/africa. In order to claim your 20% discount, simply enter the code AFR000004HKS (zeroes not os) on the online registration form. The early registration rate will end on 14 February. After that the 20% discount will apply on the standard rate.

If you have any questions, please contact the organisers at africa@labelsummit.com

Kind Regards
SAAFoST Secretariat
