

Symposium

Africa Food Safety Empowerment

Organiser DLG e.V., Frankfurt, Germany
Date 26.03.2015
Time 10:00 - 12:05 h
Location Congress Centre North

Content	In the African countries, the issue of food safety is still in its infancy. It is important to improve the situation for the protection of its own people and to improve the export opportunities. In the symposium, therefore current aspects of food safety in the African countries and the question are to be addressed, to which extent the European system may contribute to the improvement of food safety in the African countries.
Time	Thema	Referent
10:00 – 10:05	Eröffnung und Chairman	Prof. Dr. Herbert J. Buckenhüskes DLG e.V., Frankfurt, Germany
10:05 – 10:35	Challenges and prospectives of food safety in some African countries	Ass. Prof. Dr. Anastase Kimonyo UR-College of Science and Technology, Kigali, Rwanda
10:35 – 11:05	Distant Education and local workshops - IUFoST initiatives to improve food safety in Africa	Prof. Dr. Walter E.L. Spiess Past-President of the International Academy of Food Science and Technology (IAFoST), Ettlingen, Germany
11:05 – 11:35	How can the European model help the African countries to increase their food safety system?	Prof. Dr. Klaus-Dieter Jany Wadi-International-University, Wadi Al Nadara, Syria
11:35 – 12:05	Controlled mixed-fermentation as a potential key of African sorghum beer safety and nutrition improvement	Emile Tokpohozin Technische Universität München, Freising-Weihenstephan, Germany (Native country: Benin)
12:05 – 12:25	Strengthening synergies and co-operations between food science and practice - The DAAD with its programmes in Africa	Cay Etzold German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD), Bonn, Germany